WHAT HAPPENS IF IT IS RAINING OR WINDY ON THE DAY?

We operate our programmes rain or shine. However, some of our programmes are more likely to be affected by heavy rain or windy weather. In the unlikely event that we have to cancel (due to safety reasons), we will get in touch the day before to find a suitable postponement date.

If you don't hear from us then we will be operating as usual!

WHEN DO WE HAVE TO UPDATE FINAL NUMBERS?

We require at least 48 hours notice for a decrease or increase in numbers, this includes providing us with your groups final numbers 48 hours before the programme start time.

It is up to you to keep our staff updated with any changes, otherwise we will charge based upon the original booking enquiry.

WHAT DO WE NEED TO BRING?

- Swimwear
- We recommend bringing a wetsuit if you have one.
(We have a limited stock available to hire for $10, enquire at reception on the day)
- A hat and sunscreen
- A big packed lunch and a water bottle
- A set of warm and dry clothing to get changed into after the programme

Please get in touch to get a full gear list

ARE THERE ANY ACCOMMODATION FIT FOR SCHOOLS IN THE AREA?

There are a range of suitable accommodation for schools nearby; we recommend the following:

- Wanderlust Tauranga
- Tasman Holiday Park, Pacific park
- Sea Esta Camp & Lodge
- Pacific Coast Lodge
- Aongatete outdoor education centre and lodge
- Ngatuhua Lodge

HOW QUALIFIED ARE YOUR INSTRUCTORS?

Our skilled instructors bring diverse backgrounds and expertise in kayaking, climbing, and other outdoor activities, ensuring safe and professional programmes. With regular safety and skills training, provided in house, our staff prioritise participant safety, adhering to the highest industry standards for every programme.

CAN I ALTER A PROGRAMME TO SUIT MY GROUP?
